Persimmon Ridge to host women's golf championship

Business First of Louisville

Persimmon Ridge Golf Club will host the 77th Women's Trans National Championship for amateur golfers on July 9-14.

"There will be some magnificent golfers from throughout the U.S., Puerto Rico and from as far away as Australia," Lawren Just, president of Persimmon Ridge, said in a news release. "Many are future LPGA players."

This is the first time the championship has been played in Kentucky.

Persimmon Ridge, located off Aiken Road near the Old Henry and Gene Snyder interchange, is seeking volunteers to help with the tournament. Those interested must request a volunteer application by Friday, June 15, by calling (502) 241-0456. There will be a meeting for all volunteers on Thursday, June 21.

In order to help on the course, volunteers must be golfers and knowledgeable about golf etiquette and rules.
